- 4. Council of Chalcedon, (451); repudiated the Eutychian doctrine of monophysitism, described and delineated the two natures of Christ, human and divine; adopted the Chalcedonian Creed. This and all following councils are not recognized by Oriental Orthodox Communion.

Quinisext Council (= Fifth and Sixth) or Council in Trullo, (692); mostly an administrative council that raised some local canons to ecumenical status and established principles of clerical discipline. It is not considered to be a full-fledged council in its own right because it did not determine matters of doctrine. This council is accepted by the Eastern Orthodox Church as a part of VI ecumenical council, but that is rejected by Roman Catholics. Second Council of Nicaea, (787); restoration of the veneration of Icons and end of the first Iconoclasm

The Church is an enclosure, if you are within, the wolf cannot enter, but if you straight outside, the wild beast will get you. Do not wander from the Church, there is nothing more impregnable than the Church, she is your hope and your salvation. She is higher than the heavens, firmer than rock, wider than the world, she never grows old, but is forever renewing her youth. St. John Chrysostom
