Dear Parish Family,

Thank you for your prayers and support during Chester's recent illness, for the Divine Liturgies offered, and for coming to pray with us at his services. Immense gratitude for the ladies and gentlemen who prepared and served the luncheon, for the delicious deserts, and for the many cards and flowers.

May God always remember your kindness!

With Love,

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS: We join with the Saints in heaven to pray for those in need. Request Prayers: abcc72069@gmail.com Cho Mary Sabol, Special Intentions: Pat Mathis, Enedina Lopez, Lora Carson Lopez, Sophia Gaydus, Victor & Patricia Olmos Family, John Phillips, Martha Yniquez, Paul Basay, Margaret Geluso, Edward Lopez, Lupe Nevaré, Beatriz Perez,

Merciful Father, we implore you, bring back the prodigal sons and daughters of our Church who have left the Church and grant us fervor when our hearts wander. Give us also faithful servants who answer your call to the priesthood, diaconate in Christ, as well as consecrated monastics who serve and show your same merciful lovingkindness, we pray you, hear and have mercy.

"All that is mine is yours." The merciful Father welcomed the Prodigal Son and showed love to his brother when he questioned that profound love which gave all that was his to his children. Are you open to share that love of the Father by a vocation to the priesthood, diaconate, religious or monastic life? If so, contact the Vocations Office at 206-329-9219 or email: vocations@ephx.org

PRESENTS

ORTHODOXY & LIFE

A Patristic Approach to Life Issues

LIVE WEBINAR

Thursdays, February 9th - 16th

5 -6 pm California Time

Presented by Archpriest Josiah Trenham, PhD

Christians are unequivocally called to be champions of life. We often become mired in political discussions about what it means to be "pro-life" but this distracts from the profound Christian understanding of the value of life, which transcends any lines made by society. In this study, the Church Fathers will guide us into a deeper understanding of what it means to champion life, and why it is an essential, non-negotiable, part of being a Christian.
